

You should spend an minute on this task.

Tom and a friend discovered a treasure that brought them a fortune in gold. They were given a thousand dollars a piece - all gold. It was an amazing amount of money when it was piled up. Well, they lived on it for a long time, but the gold was slowly used up. When it was gone, they were poor again. The widow was a very kind and generous woman, but she was not a very good manager of money. She was a very kind and generous woman, but she was not a very good manager of money. She was a very kind and generous woman, but she was not a very good manager of money. She was a very kind and generous woman, but she was not a very good manager of money.

Continue the story.

What will the characters do and where will they go?

- Where will the characters go and who will they meet?
- Where will the characters go and who will they meet?